UM GROUP TO CELEBRATE NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENT DAY MAY 20

MISSOULA --

Phoenix, the University of Montana's organization for older students, will celebrate the Second Annual Non-Traditional Student Day Saturday, May 20, with a picnic and dance.

A potluck picnic will be from 12:30-3:30 p.m. in Bonner Park, bordered by Evans, Hilda, Beverly and Ronald streets in Missoula. There will be activities for all ages.

That evening there will be a dance from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at the Elks Club, on the corner of Pattee and Front streets in Missoula.

As part of this year's celebration, Denise Hartze has received the Non-Traditional Student Award for her service to Phoenix. The group's 1988-89 president, she is from Glendive.

LECTURER TO DISCUSS GREECE'S FUTURE

MISSOULA --

John Koumoulides, a history professor at Indiana's Ball State University, will discuss "Greece: Present and Future" Friday, May 26, at the Greek Orthodox Church, 301 S. Sixth St. West.

The lecture had originally been scheduled for Feb. 3 but was cancelled because of bad weather.

Koumoulides, whose presentation will be at 7:30 p.m., was invited to speak by University of Montana President James Koch.

A Fulbright-Hays Senior Research Scholar in Greece in 1977-78 and 1987-88, Koumoulides wrote the book "Cyprus and the War of Greek Independence 1821-29." He also edited the book "Greece in Transition: Essays in the History of Modern Greece 1821-1974."

Koumoulides earned degrees at Montclair State College and the University of Maryland and studied at England's Cambridge University. He's been a visiting scholar and visiting fellow at Oxford University, also in England, and received the Ball State University Outstanding Research Award in 1983 and Academy of Athens Award in 1985.
